PRESENT-In the Chair.

Other Councillors:

Read letters from Hugh Colgan tenant of a Labourers Cottage at Killoran, and from Thomas Creaton tenant of a Labourers Cottage at Callow drawing the Council's attention to the fact that their Cottages are much in need of repair.

It was ORDERED - That the Contractors for keeping the Cottages in repair be written to to attend to those Cottages without delay.

Mr Dunne, acting Engineeer to the Council in room of Mr Buckley, (resigned) reported that he inspected 56 Cottages included in Mr Ml Colohan's Contract and found the repairs had been fairly well attended to with the exception of slight defects in 18 Cottages a detailed list of which he sent the Contractor who now informs him that those defects have been remedied. He (Mr Dunne) purposes making a re-inspection of those 18 Cottages in a few days. The completion of the 3 Cottages at Corraneena should be pushed on more rapidly. A gooddeal of inside work might, with advantage, be proceeded with during bad weather.
