Letter from The Poor Law Commissioners, dated 13th August 1872, enclosing my communication addressed to them by an inmate named Elizabeth Clarke, (proposing) a complaint of harsh treatment she received from the Hospital Nurse, and requesting the observations of the Board thereon.

With reference to the Commissioners' letter, the Guardians desire to state that the Nurse and the inmate Elizabeth Clarke, were called before the Board and the complaint fully inquired into. It appears that Clarke (who had been allowed by the Medical Officer, Dr. Smith, to visit one of her illegitimate children in Hospital) refused to leave after an interval of about 40 minutes, and became so excited as to disturb the Patients therein, that the Nurse had to send for the Porter to aid in putting her out of Hospital; no unnecessary force was used on the occasion, and the Board believe that the alleged assault had not been committed upon Clarke who is it appears a person of violent temper.
