The

The Guardian for Greethill Division having certified that the enclosing of the Derrydonnell Grave Yard has been completed in a satisfactory manner, a cheque was ordered the Contractor for the amount of his Contract £ 14: 2: 0

S. Blackton reported

That the drainage of Woodford is yet most unsatisfactory; he was given to understand that the Contractors according to Mr. Kempster's plan were to bring the pipes from the Yards into the main pipe at a certain price, as he considered it could not be properly done by the Occupiers themselves. Now to have some of the Yards done that require it least and the worst left undone is anything but satisfactory and he cannot see how the people could well do it themselves as he fears there have been no proper connections left for the purpose.
Order To ask Mr. Kempster if connections have been left
