No order

Letter from the Town black Dublin dated 9th October 1882 enclosing copy Petition to Parliament praying for an amendment in the Law which enables Judges to fine and imprison for Contempt of Court, and referring to the recent imprisonment of Mr. E. D. Gray M.P.

No order

Letter from Mr. J. F. Kemper dated 12th October 1882 stating that having inspected the Warehouse on the 9th inst. he now encloses a Specification of the repairs he considers necessary; observing that the Board having a contract for keeping the Corps in repair he presumes they will not hold the Contractor liable for the effects of such an unusual storm and that he has accordingly estimated the cost of what he considers necessary work at £56 for labor and materials, and that it would be desirable these same executed by the present Contractor.

The Contractor having been called before the Board, the Specification was handed him and he was directed to state at next meeting if he would execute the work at Mr. Kemper's estimate.

Letter from Larne dated 2nd Nov 1882 referring to the complaint preferred against the Workhouse Master by the Porter and observing that they consider the Master's conduct very unbecoming; that from his position and responsibilities attached to it he should be careful not to commit any act that would weaken his his authority over the subordinate officers, and that the facts in the present case shew that he has not only been permiss in this particular, but has otherwise misconducted himself in a manner deserving of the greatest censure, however they will accept his promise, that he will not again give Cause for any similar complaints adding that should he give Cause for the like again they will take serious notice of it.

The Master having been called before the Board, the foregoing letter was read for him and he was cautioned accordingly.

Letter from The Rel.^y Officers dated 4th November 1882 requesting payment of their quarterly Salaries due 29th September last.

The Board directed Cheques to be drawn for these Officers, and also agreed to pay the Salaries to the several other officers at next meeting in case the Treasurer allows them to ask draw their Account.
