The following Letters from the Local Government Board for Ireland and others were read by the Clerk, and directions given to answer them respectively to the following effect (or Orders made on them respectively as follows):—

47961/89

Letter from the Local Government Board dated 13 December 1889 referring to the appointment of Mr. Patrick Kearney as Master of this Workhouse and observing that having regard to his youth and inexperience in Workhouse Management and to the nature of his previous employment it appears doubtful whether he is qualified for the office, but that they will not object to allowing him a trial and will direct their Inspector to report specially as to his competency at the end of three months and recommending that Mr. Kearney be required to give the usual security before he is placed in charge.

Order Bonds to be executed at once, and visiting committee to be summoned to attend on Wednesday next to take up stock and hand it over to the new Master.

The Board having adverted to the late Inquiry which resulted in Mr. J. M. Keenan's resignation and to the fact as disclosed on the occasion that at the time of Father Murphy's arrival at the Workhouse the Pater, as well as the Master, was absent from his post called that officer before them and cautioned him that in the event of any complaint of the kind being made against him in future or his failure to punctually record in his Book the time of the entering or leaving of the House of officers or other parties his resignation of his office would be called for.

Letters from the Registrar General dated respectively 10th & 13th December 1889, informing that D. Donoghue and Miss Maria Stanton had been appointed to the respective positions of Registrar and Deputy Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages for the District of Maynooth in place of Miss Anne Walsh, lately deceased and Miss Mary Holland her Deputy.

The Board called the Inspector before them and drew her attention to the irregularity of her proceedings in accepting an office which during the Registrar's absence on leave or otherwise must necessarily interfere with the proper discharge of her own duties, and to her omission to acquaint the Board and obtain their consent before allowing herself to be nominated for the position to which she has been appointed.

Letter from the Treasurer dated 14th Dec. 1889 stating in reply to the Clerk's inquiry that he would honor any cheques drawn to day for pressing claims in anticipation of payments of the said Rates being made by next Saturday. Cheques were accordingly drawn in favor of the R. & O. Office and some Contractors who had applied for payment of their accounts.
