The Medical Officer's Report

That, in reference to his memorandum of the 23rd inst., he has to state that the Surgeon in the Hosp. is, in his authority, who in her zeal for the patients made the complaints to him respecting the inmates were the Agents, he of course faithfully called the Master's attention to the matter, and he thinks this is not sufficient. Care observed in the admission of articles from without to Hospital. Some time ago M<sup>r</sup> V. Such is a great injustice to the Institution and medical comforts are freely given when necessary.
