26392/92

Letter from Same dated 27th July 1892 stating that they have received the Half Yearly report of their Inspector Mr. Lynch-Stamton upon this Union, in which he refers to the fact of "stock" not having been taken since the 17th October 1890, and drawing attention to the requirements of art. 64 of the Workhouse Rules in this respect; that the Women's Yard is not kept in good order, one of the drains therein choked, the floor of the Room next nursery to be repaired; Soot doors for the chimneys are required, the iby on the main gable to be trimmed; and tablets for reading lessons to be provided for the school children who it appears were not taken out for exercise for ten days preceding his inspection; that the Inspector on the day of his visit observed one of the male inmates taking up a message to the Matron to the part of the House where Women were in the act of cleaning and observing that more discretion should have been exercised by this officer, as irregularities occur through neglect of ordinary precautions in such cases, requesting that those several matters may receive the careful consideration of the Guardians

The foregoing report having been read its consideration was postponed to next meeting

Letter from Same dated 29th July 1892 declining to sanction the increase in the salary of the Matron from £25 to £35 a year as proposed at the meeting of the 25th June ultimo

With reference to the foregoing the Board trust that on reconsideration of the matter the Local Government Board will not refuse to sanction the increase in salary unanimously voted to the Matron on the occasion referred to

The

The Board would not be disposed to agree to any unnecessary expenditure of the Rates but in this case they felt that they were only doing an act of justice in giving an old and faithful public officer an increase to her salary as a recognition of her past services, and they therefore hope that the Local Government Board will no longer hesitate in issuing their consent to the increase to the salary of Miss Young their Matron as set forth in their Minutes of the 25th Ultimo

The Board moreover had before them at the time returns of salaries paid Matrons in adjoining Unions of Ballinasloe, Gort, Galway, and on comparison they were of opinion that the Matron in this Union was not paid in proportion to the salaries paid such officers in the Unions referred to. Taking into account population area valuation &c. (Unanimously agreed to)

Letter from M^r J. Toole C. P. dated 4th August 1892 enclosing a communication he had from the Registrar of Petty Sessions Clerks in reply to his inquiry regarding the disposal of the Fines levied at Loughrea Petty Sessions on Milk Contractors Kennedy and Ridge

With reference to the foregoing. The Board consider the Fines are payable to them, having a precedent in the case of fines similarly imposed upon Milk Contractors in the month of August '78

"The Sale of Food and Drugs Act" clearly establishes the right of the Guardians to these Fines - having agreed to the acting of an Analyst within their District, and the prosecution having been conducted by one of their Officers

Letter from Miss Kate M. Lanyon dated 4th August 1892 requesting the month's salary as Fever Nurse would be paid her and enclosing a Medical Certificate as to her present unfitness for active duty

The Board declined to alter the decision arrived at on the 30th Ult^o in this matter

Letter

Letter from Jane Gallahan dated 5th August 1892, complaining of the action of Collector Hade in making a seizure for Rates upon her Sheep, and charging her excessive costs of the distraint. The Board having inquired into the case in presence of the parties concerned. Consider the Collector "acted properly".

Pursuant to Circular issued to each Guardian the subject of the Circular from the Local Government Board of the 8th M^o (14th A/92) was taken into consideration and the following members were unanimously elected to represent this Union upon the Board of Management of the Galway Hospital namely Colonel Daly. Messrs William Daly. Agnew, Pape, Patrick Kennedy, Denis O'Donoghue, Patrick Mitchell, John A. Burke & Michael A. Burke. The Clerk was directed to notify to each member that the first meeting of the Board of Management would be held at Galway on Tuesday the 16th August Inst.

The explanations furnished by the Master, Chapon and Schoolmaster respectively in connection with the case of the child Anne Coppinger and by the last named Officer upon the District Inspector's report on the Workhouse School having been read by the Clerk were ordered to be forwarded to the Local Government Board.

The several tenders for the supply of Sweet Milk to the Workhouse for the year ending 28 August 93 were considered and after protracted discussion and divisions of the Board the following result was arrived by a majority of 10 to 5:-

To accept the tenders of Patrick Finnerty and Catherine Egan for one third each at the rate of eight pence per gallon, and to advertise and invite tenders for the 27th Inst for the remaining third.

The tender was received for constructing the observation Wards in Hospital and diverting the Sewage but the figures named therein (£24) being in excess of Mr. Pape's Estimate (£19:10:0) the Board declined to accept same and directed to invite fresh tenders for that day three weeks.
